Dear Taskforce Members,

Please find attached a submission prepared by QPS with respect to Issue Paper 5C (Mandatory sentences and the VLAD Legislation) that was foreshadowed by Deputy Commissioner Barnett and Assistant Commissioner Gee at the Taskforce meeting held on 23 October 2015.

This submission will be printed and provided to you at the Taskforce meeting this Friday, 4 December 2015. It would however be helpful if you could read the paper before Friday's meeting.

If any Taskforce member wishes to formally respond to the QPS submission could you kindly indicate a proposed time frame for your response at the meeting this Friday?

Kind Regards,

Secretariat

Subject: Taskforce on Organised Crime Legislation: Further submission from BAQ & statistics from Corrective Services
Attachments: BAQ Supplementary submission regarding mandatory sentencing.pdf; Corrective Services response & statistics as at 22 January 2016.docx

Dear Taskforce members,

At the Taskforce meeting on 7 August 2015, when considering the amendments to the Corrective Services Act, the Taskforce indicated further information was required from Corrective Services regarding the use of Criminal Organisation Segregation Orders (COSOs). That information has been obtained and is attached for your information.

Further, you may recall at the last meeting that the Bar Association of Queensland indicated they wished to provide a response to the QPS submission on mandatory sentencing. That submission has been received and is also attached.

These documents will be printed, collated and provided to you at Friday's meeting.

If you have any inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact us via email on taskforceonorganisedcrime@justice.qld.gov.au, or alternatively, via telephone on (07) 3033 0808.

Kind Regards,
Taskforce Secretariat
