Instructions

This form is used to lodge a complaint with the Office of Fair Trading. Please fill out to the best of your ability. If you have not already approached the trader you should do so before lodging a complaint with us.

It is best to discuss the issue with the business before lodging a formal complaint with us. Information on how to complain to a business is located on www.qld.gov.au/fairtrading, search 'Talk to the business first'.

When completing this form print neatly and:

- supply the correct name of trader and address—refer to invoice, receipt, contract, etc.
- send copies (not originals) of relevant documentation.

Have you complained in writing to another government agency about this?

☒ No ☐ Yes — whom

If yes, what was that agency's decision regarding the matter?

If your complaint is resolved after lodging this form, please advise the Office of Fair Trading as soon as possible by calling 13 QGOV (13 74 68) or visit www.qld.gov.au/fairtrading

The Office of Fair Trading is collecting your information on this form to process your complaint under the Fair Trading Act 1989 and the Australian Consumer Law. The Office of Fair Trading usually discloses this information to the trader and other Australian and New Zealand fair trading agencies. Your complaint may be transferred to another agency.

Only personal information to ensure your complaint is appropriately dealt with is provided to the trader you are complaining about.

If we decide that the trader has breached fair trading legislation and the case goes to court, are you prepared to assist us during that process (e.g. as a witness)?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Please note: We encourage you to share information with us to enable a full and prompt assessment of your complaint. Please understand we may not always commence action on your behalf. We must carefully manage the use of public resources to ensure maximum efficiency is achieved. This will result in a range of outcomes for complaints lodged with us, including some matters being investigated, some matters conciliated and some matters returned for self-resolution by the consumer.

All matters will be placed on record for information and intelligence purposes.

Most complaints we receive do not proceed to court as they do not involve a breach of legislation. In these instances we may attempt to conciliate the matter with the trader on your behalf to try and have the matter resolved.

Do you wish for the complaint to remain anonymous?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Submitting an anonymous complaint may forgo any possible conciliation or enforcement action and the purpose of this complaint is for information purposes only.

Would you like the Office of Fair Trading (OFT) to notify you of the outcome of the complaint?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If you choose Yes, you consent to the use of this email address by the Office of Fair Trading for any or all correspondence relating to your complaint.

Are you prepared to be contacted in future by the Office of Fair Trading or contractors for customer satisfaction or other research that can help us improve our services?

☒ Yes ☐ No

I declare that the information supplied by me is, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct. I agree that the information provided (except for demographic data) may, if necessary, be revealed to the trader in correspondence or investigations concerning this complaint, or referred to another authority for their appropriate action should the matter fall outside this Office of Fair Trading's jurisdiction. It may also be shared on a confidential basis with other Australian and New Zealand fair trading a
