

Application to Cancel a Negative Notice
07/10/2021

Privacy notice

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) is collecting your personal information under the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 (WWC Act).

Your personal information is being collected for the purpose of verifying your identity, processing and assessing your application for a blue/exemption card, including your eligibility to work with children, contacting you to provide or obtain more information about your application and the blue/exemption card process, producing and issuing your blue/exemption card, administering the blue card system and meeting your obligations under the WWC Act.

DJAG will disclose your personal information to organisations you work for, or expect to work for, or provide services to, including information about whether you have a current application for or hold a current blue/exemption card, the outcome of this application which may include its withdrawal or negative notice and if your blue/exemption card is subsequently suspended or cancelled.

DJAG will also disclose your personal information to courts, law enforcement agencies, regulatory, governing, disciplinary or supervisory bodies, other Australian agencies that conduct screening of people who work with children or vulnerable people, other government agencies to verify your identity, including the Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR), TMR and their card producer to produce your blue/exemption card, DJAG's information and communication technology service providers for the purpose of system support and development, authorised users of the home-based care register which is kept pursuant to the WWC Act and anyone you have agreed for DJAG to discuss your application with. TMR will provide the photograph they hold of you to their card producer and your photograph will be displayed on your blue/exemption card.

Your personal information may be transferred overseas where you access DJAG online services from outside Australia, where a service provider who provides services to DJAG has servers located outside Australia and in exceptional circumstances for card production purposes. Some email service providers store emails outside Australia. If yours does, then emails sent to you by DJAG will be stored outside Australia.

DJAG publishes confirmation about whether your blue card is valid.

DJAG may use electronic communication to provide information and to collect for research purposes.

DJAG manages your personal information in accordance with the WWC Act and the Information Privacy Act 2009 and will not disclose your personal information to other third parties except in accordance with the WWC Act and the Information Privacy Act or where otherwise required by law.

Important information

You can withdraw your consent to screening at any time before a decision is made. If you withdraw your consent to screening your negative notice will remain current. If you have a current negative notice you must not apply for, start or continue in regulated employment or carry on a regulated business or you may be subject to penalties of up to 5 years imprisonment or a fine in excess of $66,000.

* Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.

† Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

Police information

A change in police information includes:

- any charge or conviction for an offence (conviction means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred);
- the existence of police investigative information relating to allegations of serious child-related sexual offences, even if no charges were laid;
- where the person is the subject of an application for a disqualification order (which is an order that prohibits a person from holding or applying for a blue/exemption card);
- where the person is the respondent to an application for an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004; or
- where the person becomes subject to reporting obligations or a child protection offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004; or a disqualification order; or a sexual offender order.

Human Rights

Section 58 of the Human Rights Act 2019 (Qld) requires public entities to act compatibly with human rights. Blue Card Services will give proper consideration to relevant human rights in its decision making.
